

Amtrak Passenger Train Emergency Response Procedures

This course is presented by Amtrak. Content includes familiarization with railroad systems, equipment, and operational procedures; operation of access and egress devices, as well as emergency operation of the equipment; power systems including locomotives, electric powered equipment; firefighting/search and rescue procedures for rail cars; and victim removal from rail cars using various rescue procedures.

Designed for: All emergency response personnel

Course Length: 4 hours

Prerequisite: Firefighter I; BEFO, Scene Support, Basic Firefighter; or Firefighting Essentials

Course Number: 01-04-0064

Sunday, April 22, 2018

8:00am

Chautauqua County Office of Emergency Services

2 Academy Street

Mayville, NY 14757

Questions: Rich Westpfahl, 716-269-4965

To register go to www.chautcofire.org