

Principles of Instruction

With Marcus Ford

At Murphy Training Grounds, 665 Brigham Road, Dunkirk

An introductory course for individuals who will be conducting training at the company level. Topics include: qualities of a good instructor, job performance requirements, components of a lesson plan, cognitive and psychomotor lesson plans, dealing with adult learners, meeting individual learning needs, factors that affect learning, the instructor's role in safety, new technologies in course delivery, and learning characteristics of different generations.

Designed for: Fire service training officers and company officers

Course Length: 15 hours

Course number: 01-11-0086

Min 12/Max 24

Prerequisites: The Instructors are requesting that all potential students have a minimum of one entry level firefighting course and one year of experience as a firefighter due to the complexity of the topics covered and the expected proficiency to instruct said topics. Special consideration may be given by the instructors to a potential student that does not meet the minimums on an individual basis.
